

Fabric Framing -- February News

Sharon wanted to frame a special fabric piece she had been given. It had two beautiful decorative borders woven into the design, so all we had to do was to add an appropriate single mat. Fabric pieces often are not exactly square, especially on the corners, and need a mat to help them to fit correctly into a frame. She chose a mahogany frame that blended with the burgundy in the fabric and with other frames she had in the room. Done!
