

Commemorating the First Football Game – February News

A good customer of mine wanted to frame her son's first game certificate. Here is what she said about it:

"This was Nathan's first game. He went with his dad and his grandparents. His grandparents gave him the tickets and got the certificate for him when they were at the game. My husband and his family are diehard buckeyes, so it was a very special day for Nathan that I wanted to commemorate. "

We "floated" the items on top of the mat so as not to lose any of the red border on the certificate or information on the tickets. Then we used a neutral, steel gray mat and simple black frame to enhance and not compete with the colors of the subject matter. Congratulations on your first game, Nathan. May there be many more!
