

Unique Wedding Momento Framed – June Newsletter

My good customers, Barbara Hunter and Frank Rockhold, got married this year. Since they were hosting the reception in their home, they held two separate events back to back to manage the crowds and accommodate their family and friends. So in addition to the wedding program (center, below) they had two reception invitations and reply cards plus a special wedding stamp they had made just for these mailings. We decided on a multi-holed mat with another raised mat to leave space for the burgundy ribbon. It was a very unique framing job! Congratulations, Barbara and Frank!
