

Almost Spring -- March News

Spring is almost here! A very sweet customer of mine in Cary painted this picture. Here is what she says about it:

“I’ve come to love watercolor even though it’s very difficult for me. I knew I’d keep on learning when I finally did a bare tree that my son liked enough to make a frame for. The bare tree looked lonely where we placed it, so I painted the tulips to go alongside and again my son made the frame. I seem to be on a roll with flowers—it’s all I’m painting right now.”

The picture is so cheerful and reminded me that Spring is almost here, so I wanted to share it with you. We chose a neutral, light color for the upper mat and a rich golden brown to complement the flower stem and frame for the lower mat. Thank you, Judi, for sharing your artwork with us!

Happy Almost Spring!

My husband, Joe, and I are making more rustic birdhouses out of old barn wood and tin from the roof that we embellish with antique pieces. Here are group pictures of the new ones:

If you are interested in seeing individual picture of the birdhouses, please let me know and I will email them to you along with the prices.

“Have frames, will travel” is my slogan and it means that I will visit you for a free framing consultation and free delivery when your frame work is done. I am happy to come to your house, your office, or another location of your choosing. It is very helpful to select framing materials in the area where the picture will be hanging since it is easy to hold samples up for comparison.
