

Designing by Divining...October Newsletter

I am offering a new service along with the picture framing called Designing by Divining. Have an adventure! Allow me to be your guide in designing your home or yard with the help of your location angel. A location angel cares for a place just as a guardian angel cares for a person. I use divining rods as a tool to interpret the advice of the angel in creating the look and feeling you want. I have been doing this for 25 years and it is always helpful, fun and surprising. Sharon is a good framing customer of mine. Here is one of her experiences with this new service:

I asked Judie to help me find the perfect place in my newly renovated house to hang pictures she had recently framed for me. I was very pleased and surprised with the new layout that the location angel suggested. Some of the spots were places I would never have thought of.

Then I had her help me with the arrangement of my spare bedroom because I just couldn't imagine what would look good. A most delightful moment was the angel directing us to my storage building where she pointed out an antique bench for an empty corner. It was not only the perfect size but the right color to tie the room together. I had forgotten all about that bench! The angel also had us bring in an old turquoise garden chair that added just the right punch of color to the room. It was great fun!
